CITY NOTES.

They get splendid ten inch ice at Washington Point.

The rain has made the sporting men up town look blue.

The garden street clerks had a fine time yesterday trying to dislodge those immense ice cascades.

"Old Pops" promised us rain on Friday, and sure enough it came, to the infinite disgust of the ice gatherers.

The walks up town were flooded with water last night, so it was next to impossible to travel them.

The sleighing on some of the down town streets being worn out in places some of the carmen used wagons on Friday.

The Excise Commissioners report having granted 17 licenses during the year, for which they have received $5,295.

Andrew Dunn has the finest assortment of opera-glasses ever exhibited here, among them imported French glasses of great power and beauty of finish.

The Common Council last night ordered the grading, curbing and guttering of Mill street. This is the most sensible thing they have yet done.

Dr. Greenward of Poughkeepsie will deliver an address before Minnehaha Division on Friday evening next at quarter before eight o'clock.

We saw a jolly party enjoying a straw ride yesterday afternoon and the rain was pouring down they sat under the protection of umbrellas and didn't mind it a bit.

The Presbyterian ladies intend to pay for the furniture and organ of the new church, which will cost over $6,000. They have nearly $4,000 now on hand.

Our Common Council should have taken a walk on either Garden street sidewalk last night. In a winter thaw that street is a disgrace to the city.

Considerable religious interest is manifested at the Albany avenue Baptist Church. Three were baptized last Sabbath evening and others are awaiting the ordinance on tomorrow evening.

A happy sleigh-ride of twenty couples of up town young folks took a ride out to Ed. Freudenburgh's residence on the Sawkill Wednesday night and had a very pleasant time, and came home in the morning.

"Music hath charms"—we know it but, because there is a German woman who buckles an old strap with her three cracked sleigh-bells to her harness, the music of which seems to soothe his savage breast as some-knot cord.

To-day the sale of unclaimed packages in possession of the A. M. Express Company takes place in Albany, and Mr. Newcomb, the obliging agent of the company in this city, on Friday sent a number of packages from the city to the sale.

An old gentleman, father of a pretty young miss, started up with the following comment: "How is it that a pair of lovers will sit up half the night and not turn as much kerosene as the family use in an hour during the evening?" We give it up—they use gas where we give.

Considerable freight is received in this city, via Walkill Valley Railway for merchants in Saugerties. Those merchants say it is cheaper to bring it here by that road and then cart it to Saugerties than it is to get it to Tirol by the Hudson River road and ferry it over the river.

One of the young lawyers up town who has joined the new class for dancing has furnished himself with his partner, with one of Wynkoop's spring dancing-jacks. This jack when wound up dances in a way that beats Fanning all hollow, and gives the amateur a fine chance to learn all the latest steps between times, so he can astonish the class by his wonderful improvement.

The Walz Trial.

Judge Westbrook, under date of the 9th inst., writes us: "The Walz case will be taken up the second week, and not the first. This is the agreement between counsel, and I acquiesced in it. The first week will be devoted to the civil business. Possibly, if there is no civil business, and both sides assent, I will take up the Post robbery case the first week, but the Walz case will be taken up the second week." The many who wish to hear only the Walz trial will therefore note that they need not attend court until the 22d instant.

It will be remembered that Joseph Walz was indicted at the June term for the murder of Harmon Holcher, on the night of May 1st, 1873. The trial was postponed from the November term. The prisoner will be defended by Osborn & Givens and James B. Olney. District Attorney Crowell, John A. Griswold and R. H. King will plead insanity, and the defense will be made by Joseph Walz.

The defense will determine the verdict. Subpoenas have been already served upon the local physicians, experts and other witnesses. It is expected that an extra panel of jurors will be required, and that will probably be drawn next week.—Catskill Recorder.

The Roxbury Railroad Case.

Judge Ingalls has rendered his decision in the case of Receiver Brigham against, Constable Myers of Roxbury for seizing on property of the railroad to satisfy an execution. The Judge decided the motion to declare Myers in contempt of court.

The Hampton Singers; This Afternoon and Evening.

Remember that the Hampton Singers give a matinee at 2 P. M. to-day in Music Hall and appear in a concert in Washington Hall at 8 P. M. in the evening in an entire change of programme. The enthusiasm with which these young singers, all of whom were born in slavery, were received when in this city a few weeks since is proof positive that the music rendered by them touches the popular heart, and as the object for which their energies are bent is such a laudable one, we trust they will be greeted by such audiences as they deserve.

The singers are all students at Virginia Hall at Hampton, Va., where they are being fitted to be teachers of others of their own race, and as the buildings now in use for school purposes are inadequate for the accommodation of the great number of freedmen and women who are thinking to drink of the fountain of learning it is to be hoped they will receive substantial aid to help them complete the structure already commenced, and upon which $30,000 have already been expended. The arrangements made with the officials of the N. Y., K. & S. Railroad have already been noticed, as have the places where tickets can be obtained both in the upper and lower parts of the city. The matinee commences at 2 P. M. in Music Hall, and the concert at 8 P. M. in Washington Hall. Doors open at one and seven P. M. Gentlemen usher—a set of pleasant, good-looking and well-behaved young men—will be in attendance both at Music and Washington Halls and the best accommodations will be given.

Re-arranging the boundary of Orange and Sullivan.

General Niven, in a letter to the Tri-State Union, urges the annexation of Deerpark to Sullivan, and also admits the propriety, if a reorganization is to take place, of making the boundary of Orange and Sullivan the crest of Shawangunk range from Sam's Point to the east and west line of Orange county near New Vernon. As we said on a former occasion, the only obstacle to this arrangement, if the voters interested accept it, is the payment of town bonds. Manakating is heavily bonded, and it would be difficult, if not impossible in dividing the town to divide the debt satisfactorily. The people of that part of Sullivan proposed to be annexed to Orange would be glad of the change if it could be accomplished without complicating existing circumstances. With the territory east of the Shawangunk Mountains now included in Sullivan detached therefrom and joined with Orange a new town could be erected that would make it convenient for all concerned by the northern portion of the town of Walker, with the detached portion of Manakating. The plan has much to recommend it, and if General Niven will point out a way to dispose of the bond difficulty we think the proposition can be carried.—Goshen Republic.

Trustees and Executors Fees.

By the present law executors and trustees receive five per cent. on the first thousand dollars received and paid over, two and a half per cent. on the next three thousand, and after that one per cent. Each of the executors receive this commission, besides all of their expenses and counsel fees. A proposition was made before the Legislature of the year 1872, the first day of its session to charge, in addition to the sum now charged, one per cent. on all sums invested, re-invested or kept invested. The object of this law is to enable trustees to take out their percentage every time the money is re-invested, so that if they re-invest the money in their hands every year they can take out their commissions annually. In this way the whole estate would soon be used up, and it would be for the interest of trustees to call in money safely loaned so that they could get the commission of re-lending it. In addition to this, every time the money is paid in it can be kept in the hands of the trustees two or three months, while they are looking for a good place to put it out, and are examining titles, etc. This bill was introduced by Mr. Holden and should be entitled, "An act to enable executors and trustees to use up an estate, so that the heirs might not be injured by its possession."—Fishkill Journal.

All's Well That Ends Well.

The New Paltz Independent has a correspondent at Hight's Falls who writes it two very good items every week. His nom de plume is "Shoo Fly," and it ordinarily answers very well, but in his last week's communication he arranged his items so as to make a very funny notice and it read thus:

Jane, wife of Mr. Richard Durbin, formerly of this neighborhood, but of late years a resident of Marlborough, was buried from the former Church in this place on the 6th inst. She was a woman of pious instincts, and well beloved by all who knew her. Her loss was mourned by a host of sympathetic friends.

Reform Ticket in Marlborough.

A paper has been in circulation in Marlborough for some time for signatures of those who were in favor of a union "Reform" ticket at the coming town meeting. A large number of names were procured. On Saturday a meeting was held at Milton, which placed Dr. Gedney in nomination for Supervisor. We have no fall report of proceedings. A correspondent speaking of the movement, indicates that one of the chief objects is to prevent the use of money at elections, and says: "At all events we shall get the minds of the people awake to the fact that it has been a long time since we have had an office filled except by the corrupt influence of money."—New Paltz Independent.

Mysterious Disappearance.

About a week ago Charles Simmons of Tirol, a mason, once a foreman over a gang of men on the H. R. R. R., left his home to go to Rondout, and has not been seen since. His brother, officer Simmons of Tirol, started yesterday to search for him. When he was seen he was a good match and had had considerable money on his person. He was a steady, reliable man, and fears are entertained that he has been foully dealt with. He has a light complexion, heavy sandy hair, and a mustache, and is slightly round shouldered. He has a wife and three children.—Poughkeepsie Eagle.

Quite True.

The Kingston-Rondout Freeman is one of the liveliest, nowast, spiciest papers in the state, albeit, according to "Slow Cus," it is published in one of the sleepiest towns between Sleepy Hollow and Rip Van Winkle's haunts, and the body of the church is to be put on sometime during the year. Well finished it will be the pride of Ellenville, as well as the wonder of the adjacent country.

Broke Through the Ice.

On Thursday afternoon Mr. Chaney Stewart, a cattle dealer from this city, drove seven head of cattle from this city to Rhinecliff on the other side and when near the Rhinecliff dock the whole drove got together on the ice, which gave way and left them struggling in the water, but by the timely arrival of bystanders the cattle were all gotten out and landed.

VICINITY.

—Bloomville is trying to organize a Grange. This is the first year a raft was ever run down the Delaware in January.

—North Tarrytown has sixty destitute families.

—The Albany Express wants the Young Men's Association to take a cathartic.

—Town meetings in Greene county on the 7th of April.

—A porcupine was shot at Orange Lake on Tuesday.

—Newburgh philanthropists surprise poor families by dumping coal before their doors without revealing their names.

—Scranton hasn't paid her lady school-teachers in three months. She ought to be ashamed of herself.

—The Delaware Bridge Company at Concho seems to be a good-paying concern. It has declared a ten per cent. dividend.

—D. C. Naxon of Roxbury has lost his $75 rooster. It got its head fast between two pickets.

—The commencement of ice-cutting has decreased the number of applicants for out-door relief in Newburgh.

—Two and a half acres of onion land in Greycourt meadow have just been sold for $430 an acre.

—The Hudson Star wants Rev. Vandevere to come up there and preach against lying. The need certainly is great.

—Rev. Mr. Tinker is urging the Goshen Methodists to build a new church. Several gentlemen offer $25,000 toward it.

—The village of Greenbush has bought a new safe. As the village is practically bankrupt, the purchase of the safe is considered a good joke.

—Bonner's new farm is situated about three miles east of Tarrytown, and he paid $40,000 for it. It has an exercising track of three-quarters of a mile.

—The Sullivan County Record insists that the paupers of that county are well cared for, notwithstanding they only cost ninety cents a week.

—The Goshen Republican, having heard that Bible have been put on some of the cars, wants Bible classes established on the through trains.

A Court Scene.

The Troy Press gets off the following: At the Columbia Circuit Court last week during the trial of a case, a witness was asked: "How large a neighborhood was that where he lived?" Witness answered: "Pretty big neighborhood for its size." In another case some question arose as to what a witness had testified, on which the stenographer proceeded to read from his notes for the purpose of settling the dispute. When the "gentleman of the books and crooks" began to read, the witness (a man of over 70) arose, stepped forward and intently overlooked the reporter's shoulder in blank amazement and finally said: "Well, I swear, that's just what I said, but that ere juggling beats my time." The natural and confident manner in which the whole thing was done set the court room in a roar. We all know how natural it is to look over one's shoulder when that party is reading from a paper.

"Queer."

A young man residing at Kerkonkson lately received a circular from New York setting forth the information that he could get three hundred dollars in "queer" or counterfeit money, by paying a small percentage in good money on the three hundred of "queer," the percentage to be paid on receiving the package, which was to be sent by express, marked "Patent Medicine." The youth sent word to have the package forwarded and received a bundle marked C. O. D., for which he paid eleven dollars. The bundle contained a box filled with bottles of colored water, which was "queer" enough to disgust the youth; and served him right.

Personal.

Purser William Hathaway of the New York and Savannah steamship San Salvador arrived home on a short leave of absence on Thursday. The Purser reports a hilly passage north this voyage, having experienced terrible weather, "which caused the passengers to be very sorry they came, but might glad they didn't bring their grandmothers."

Rev. Mr. Osterander's Sermon.

Our reporter was in error in regard to the item published in Thursday's paper stating that on Sunday Rev. Mr. Osterander would preach against "Dancing." He has announced a very different subject and furthermore does not propose to answer Rev. Mr. Vandevere's sermon upon that subject.

Serious Accident.

George Fletcher, who resides on Union avenue, slipped and fell down the cellar stairs Friday, cutting and injuring himself badly. Upon reaching his rooms he fainted away, which very much alarmed his wife, who thought he was dead. He is now doing well.

Sale of Real Estate.

Mr. Nathan Ellis, of the firm of Sampson & Ellis in the lower portion of the city, has disposed of the store on North Front street lately owned by him to Cohen & Coon. Price paid $9,000.

OUR FREE PARLIAMENT.

Mr. Edron.—In your issue of the Daily Freeman of the 12th inst. we noticed a communication by J. Matthews, in regard to the escape of the Yankee towns, in which he takes exceptions to the item heretofore published. Mr. Matthews says "We trust an impartial examination was taken, and the prisoner was held to bail." The examination was held in a court of law, and the prisoner was held to bail. The examination was held in a court of law, and the prisoner was held to bail.
